Accessibility/Usability

I designed and developed my website so that it is available to everyone, including those with disabilities and impairments. I believe that everyone should have equal access to this website. It is important that equal opportunity is provided to people with different abilities.

Images